To be eligible for a return, please ensure that you meet the following requirements:

1. The return request must be submitted within the designated return period
2. If the product is part of a promotion with a free product (i.e. 2+1, 3+3, etc.), returns are only possible if all products included in the promotion are returned
3. The products must be in their original condition, unused, and with all original labels and packaging intact

Make sure to follow the instructions provided during the return process to ensure proper product return
